

Name: _____ Date: _____

Complete the sentences using
“enough or either”

I have _____ pencils for everyone.

I don't like _____ of those games.

He is not tall _____ to reach.

_____ you or I will clean it.

You can take _____ book home.

We don't have _____ chairs.

I didn't study _____ for the test.

You may sit in _____ chair.

_____ Tom or Sam will come.

We don't have _____ chairs.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Complete the sentences using
“enough or either”

I have enough pencils for everyone.

I don't like either of those games.

He is not tall enough to reach.

Either you or I will clean it.

You can take either book home.

We don't have enough chairs.

I didn't study enough for the test.

You may sit in either chair.

Either Tom or Sam will come.

We don't have enough chairs.